14th Egham Beer Festival

Thursday 28th - Sunday 31st March 2013

Ale & Cider Menu

Welcome to first of our three beer extravaganzas of 2013! Our simple plan is to offer you some of the best unusual ales from in and around London and the South of England - beers that you'll be hard pushed to find under one roof!

Since its inception 5 years ago the Egham Beer Festival has built up a solid reputation for showcasing beers from some of Britain's newest breweries plus new and unusual beers from some of the more established breweries. There is also a range of real ciders plus reasonably priced hot & cold food available at most sessions.

In 2013 we shall be supporting a local charity in addition to Help For Heroes. The White Lodge Centre at Chertsey has been providing care and support for disabled children, youngsters and adults for more than 50 years. We hope to be able to hand over donations to both of these worthwhile charities during the Beer Festival. Please accept our thanks in advance for all your generous donations past, present and future - it really does change lives!

Please note that your festival glasses (kindly sponsored by Ascot Ales) are oversized and so a full pint (or half pint) to the line is guaranteed! They can be taken home as a memento of your visit or returned on your exit for a refund of your £2 deposit at the end of your visit. Even better, why not donate your deposit to our charity appeals!!

Live music this time around sees acoustic rock band Guesswork on Friday evening, and on Saturday, making a welcome return visit, ex-pat Jamie Marshall with an evening of songs from his 30+ year career.

Finally, please raise your glasses to all the brewers of Britain and also to the scrapping of the beer duty escalator by the Chancellor in last week's budget!
